

SAYS WAR IN VAIN IF LEAGUE BEATEN

Wilson Tells Pro-League Republicans League Assures World Peace

Says So-called "Americanism" Is a Spurious Brand

Insists Germany Not Only Nation With Sinister Ambitions

President's Broken Health Impresses Visitors

(By Associated Press)

Washington, October 27.—President Wilson, speaking to a group of Pro-League Republicans today at the White House, declared that "the so-called Americanism which we hear so much prating about now is spurious and invented for party purposes only."

Appealing for the completion of the "great moral achievement" which he said the war represented, the President asserted that "the war will have been fought in vain and our sacrifices thrown away unless we complete the work we then began."

"There is only one way to assure the world of peace," the President declared, "and that is by making it so dangerous to break the peace that no other nation will have the audacity to attempt it."

The President warned his hearers not to be deceived into supporting the "imperialistic schemes ended with the defeat of Germany or that Germany is the only nation that entertained such schemes or was moved by sinister ambitions and long standing jealousies to attack the very structure of civilization."

DANGER EXISTS SAYS PRESIDENT

"There are other nations," said the President, "which are likely to be powerfully moved or already moved by commercial jealousy or by the desire to dominate and to have their own way in politics and in enterprise and it is necessary to check and apprise them that the world will be united against them as it was against Germany if they attempt any similar thing."

"The league of nations is the well considered effort of the whole group of nations which opposed Germany to secure themselves and the rest of mankind against the repetition of war. It will have back of it the watchfulness and material force of all these nations and if such a guarantee of a peaceful future as no well informed man can question who does not doubt the whole spirit with which the world war was conducted against Germany."

WILSON BROKEN AUDITORS MOVED

In a formal statement issued after they left the White House members of the delegation said they were "deeply touched" by the physical appearance of the President who received them sitting and who plainly showed the effects of his long illness and the tremendous strain he has been carrying.

"He read from manuscript his reply to the address of the deputation," the statement continued, "and was greatly moved as he did so. More than once his voice choked, especially when

WATCH STRIKE OF WHEAT GROWERS

Grain Operators and Market Officials Deeply Interested

State Official in Kansas Says No "Strike" Exists

(By Associate Press)

Kansas City, October 27.—Grain operators, market officials and state boards of agriculture throughout the southwest were watching closely today for the effect of a reported "strike" of wheat raisers who, it was said, were refusing to ship their product to terminal markets until a basic price of $3 per bushel was realized.

The "strike" called recently by the National Wheat Growers' Association in a proclamation urging members to withhold their wheat from market until a $3 price was obtained was declared by W. H. McCreedy, Wichita, Kansas, secretary of the organization to be in full force.

J. C. Mohler, of Topeka, secretary of the Kansas State Board of Agriculture, on the other hand was emphatic in asserting there was no such "strike" in Kansas and his view was held by many other grain men.

EFFORT TO CAUSE RACIAL HATRED

Such is Charge Made by Gov. Cox Against Opposition

Says Promises Made Colored Voters Won't be Fulfilled.

(By Associated Press)

Atlanta, Ga., October 27.—In a letter to Frank L. Stanton, Jr., of Atlanta, made public today, Governor Cox charged that efforts were being made to "arouse racial hatred" to defeat him.

"We are making this campaign," said Governor Cox's letter, "for peace, for progress and for prosperity. An attempt has been made by our opponents to detract from this issue by setting up racial groups with a selfish purpose. To each of these groups something has been promised.

"None of those who have been against America in the last four years is going to vote for me. Promises have been made to the Afro-American party which I do not believe the promoters have any intention of carrying out. There are some classes of social equality which cannot be. To quote the words of the immortal Lincoln: 'We do not want the negroes to be slaves but that does not mean that we want negro women for our wives.' 'I know no better way to express the evils in the attempt to arraign class against class in America.'"

THROGS GREET COX IN CINC

(By Associated Press)

Cincinnati, October 26.—Special pleas for election of senatorial candidates favoring the league of nations were made by Governor Cox today.

The Democratic presidential candidate, reiterating that he would construe his election—in which he expressed utmost confidence—"as a positive mandate" for American entrance into the league," asked support for Democratic candidates here in Ohio, and in Kentucky also, whom he said stood "four square" upon the league issue.

"Don't tie my hands by electing a hostile senator," he urged. Governor Cox asked Kentucky voters to "send back" Senator Beckham and his Ohio audiences were urged to support W. A. Julian.

An ovation of several minutes was given to Governor Cox when he entered Music Hall tonight. The large hall was over flowing, hundreds standing, and outside crowds fought bitterly to enter.

There were several minor brushes between police and those outside, who almost rushed and broke down doors. Large crowds stood in the rain in the streets to catch a glimpse of the candidate. Prolonged applause from the large crowd interrupted the Governor frequently, especially during his league argument.

Inquiry by Naval Board Under Way

(By Associated Press)

Washington, October 27.—Natives killed in Haiti during the five years of American occupation numbered 2,250 instead of 3,250, as previously announced, it was disclosed at the opening of the naval court of inquiry recently appointed by Secretary Daniels to investigate the conduct of the Marines in the island republic.

Brigadier General Barnett, former commandant of the Corps, the first witness, testified that a mistake in addition had led to the erroneous announcement.

Major Edmund McClellan, attached to the casualty record office, testified only a very few of the natives killed had not fallen in action with the Marines or Gendarmes.

General Barnett was on the stand less than one hour and the first session of the court lasted only a little more than that time.

CABBAGE SNAKE IS DISCOVERED

"Horse-Hair Snake" Found in Head of Cabbage by Washington Women

While cutting a head of cabbage, Tuesday evening Mrs. R. W. Hutson of Washington avenue discovered an 18 inch "cabbage snake" coiled about deep in the head of cabbage.

The "snake" as they are commonly called, although some 18 inches in length, was hardly thicker than a broom straw, and was almost white, or a light green in color, being so near like the color of the cabbage that it was difficult to see the "snake."

The snake was so deep in the head that only by cutting the head in small sections to cook could the snake be noticed.

The "cabbage snake" is believed to be nothing more nor less than the ordinary hairworm known as the "horse hair snake" and so far as known are harmless, although stories of persons being poisoned, presumably by the worms in cabbage have been told.

It is believed that the horse hair snake or cabbage snake has taken refuge in cabbage from time immemorial and will continue to do so, under favorable conditions, as long as cabbage is grown.

The worms are so small that they speedily shrivel up after being removed from the cabbage, and no trace of a head can be noticed with the naked eye.

PUT FIGHTING QUALITIES IN YOUR BLOOD

If You Are Pale and Weak, Without Ambition, You Need a Tonic

TRY TAKING PEPTO-MANGAN

Rich, Red Blood Fights Off Disease and Keeps You Well and Enables You to Work With Pleasure

Serious sickness often comes when you least suspect. You may feel a little over-tired. You haven't been exposed to contagion, yet all of a sudden you are flat on your back and in for a siege of sickness.

Your blood did not have fighting qualities. It was weak and thin. Your vitality and powers of resistance were low.

When you over do you use up energy. Your blood is driven to do more than it can. It becomes clogged with waste. The waste acts like poison. Disease germs get in your blood and dominate.

Don't let yourself get run down. Take that good tonic, Pepto-Mangan. It makes rich, red blood that will resist and rout out disease germs.

Pepto-Mangan is widely and heartily endorsed by physicians. It is effective and easy to take. Comes in either liquid or tablet form. Both have the same effect.

Sold at any drug store. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's." Ask for it by the name and be sure the full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," is on the package.

So many request extension of time that Dr. Frederick Blankner will remain one week longer, until Wednesday, November 3.

It surely is compelling evidence that people of this vicinity are seriously interested in the services of Dr. Blankner when people from all parts of Fayette county telephone and make special requests for him to extend his visit. People realize that Dr. Blankner is a doctor of things. His thirty-three years of experience is a valuable asset to everyone he accepts for treatment. The Kiwanis club admits only one or two members from each profession or line of business. There are 25 clubs in Ohio now.

Governor Miller, who has just taken office, has announced that 15 new clubs will be formed in the state, before the international convention at Cleveland in June.

MASTER PRODUCTION AT PALACE THEATER

One of the biggest screen attractions of the year, "The Great Redeemer," a new release of this month, and said to surpass in its intense dramatic interest and unusual features "The Miracle Man," and other noted plays, began a three days showing at the Palace Theater, Wednesday.

"The Great Redeemer" is as impressive a picture as its title indicates. It is no ordinary photo play, but a superb production which, in its powerful and intensely human narrative, holds the spectator spellbound.

The story has to do with Dan Molloy, a western desperado and "stick up" man, who is regenerated after a chance encounter with a beautiful mountain girl.

It is while Dan is in the penitentiary that the marvellous latter day miracle happens which alters his evil course. The depiction of this miracle is a cinematic marvel and stills the audience to hushed wonder.

Especially notable is the scenic background of the picture, showing the most picturesque parts of California and Arizona, vast and rugged in beauty.

A notable cast appears in the picture, with House Peters as Dan Molloy and Marjorie Daw as the girl.

House Peters in one of the big scenes is required to leap a horse across a gap between two mighty crags, with an abyss yawning below to a depth of fully 1,000 feet. He describes this as the narrowest escape of his career as a screen player.

The great demand for this production necessitates reserved seats, which went on sale Monday. A hundred and sixty seats are reserved for each performance.

CORN HUSKING AGAIN AT HAND

Corn husking is once more at hand, and the recent rains have placed the fodder in excellent condition for handling in the shock—a thing practically impossible before the rains because of the dry condition of the fodder.

Corn husking will not become general until next month, but the several weeks of dry weather has thoroughly cured the corn in most instances, although some of the late corn will require freezing weather before being ready to husk.

A great amount of corn will be husked on the stalk or has been turned over to the hogs with out husking, and the largest number of hogs in recent years will be fed for market.

"COULD EAT A KEG OF NAILS," SAID A LANCASTERMAN

For twenty years stomach has bothered him by filling up with gas after meals; liver was sluggish and kidneys weak. Declares the herbal medicine Drecto, has overcome these troubles and filled him full of vim and vigor.

"I actually believe I could eat a keg of nails, and it wouldn't hurt my stomach, since I've been taking this medicine, Drecto," declared Mr. Oscar Hoyman, 327 W. Main St. Lancaster, Ohio.

"It used to be right after meals my stomach would fill up with gas which made me very uncomfortable, and gave me a choking sensation in my throat. My kidneys became affected, giving aching pains in my back and limbs, something like rheumatism. My liver was sluggish so that headaches and dizzy spells often attacked me. I became so nervous that I didn't know what it was to get a good night's sleep I had to take medicine nearly every night to keep my bowels moving."

"I believe Drecto helped me from the first dose, for the gas was relieved very quickly, and my stomach was more comfortable than it had been in a long time. My bowels acted easy and normal and the pains in my back became less as I continued the treatment. I also noticed that the catarrh did not trouble me so bad. Every morning now I get up feeling refreshed and full of vim and energy ready for the day's work. Drecto is certainly a great medicine and I'm boosting it to all my friends."

All druggists now sell Drecto and it is being especially introduced in Washington C. H. by Frank Christopher. —Advt.

The Big Mix-Up
The Democratic State Convention of Georgia on Monday expressed "unalterable opposition" to the league of nations in the platform adopted and the state's senators were instructed to vote against the adoption of the covenant.

The same convention, at the same time, indorsed the candidacy of Cox and Roosevelt for president and vice president. Both candidates have declared that they are in favor of the adoption of the covenant and are urging its acceptance and ratification, claiming that the question of whether the league shall be adopted or rejected, is the determining issue of the campaign.

It would be difficult to find a more glaring instance of inconsistency. That example can be equalled but not surpassed.

On the Republican side of the battle field we have Senator Johnson and Senator Borah supporting Harding and Coolidge because they have expressed opposition to the adoption of the league covenant and Elihu Root, Herbert Hoover and ex-President Taft supporting Harding ardently because he has said he favors the adoption of the league covenant.

No wonder the poor new voters are milling about looking for information, for reasons and for some consistency of policy and candidates. No wonder the new voters are bewildered, and the old voters too, for that matter.

Never in the history of American politics has there been a weird jumble of contradictions as the one which rises up now to confuse and confound the voters.

Those who are sincerely undertaking to unscramble the omelet of inconsistencies are making but poor progress and obtaining but little assistance from the leaders.

And The Rain Comes

Now after the long dry spell which came just at the proper time, although many feared it would not come, so long did the "growing" weather last, now after the corn is cured and the fields seeded with wheat, come the gentle rains of October.

Beginning with a mist, increasing, by degrees, to a "sprinkle" and then on to heavy showers the seed has been covered with moist warm soil, the tender young growing wheat has been given a refreshing drink and its fall bath.

The fodder has been softened by rains and made easier to handle; the rains too will make the corn shucks more easily peeled off the golden ear when the huskers get to work.

Like the long dry spell of October, its gentle rains came just at the right time. Everything is all right. All our worries were useless.

A Little More Specifically

One of our good friends has asked us to be more specific in our statements that Paul F. Dye is better qualified to represent this district in Congress than Dr. Fess.

Well, that is not at all difficult without attempting, even, to detract from Dr. Fess' abilities.

Paul F. Dye is a young man. If elected to represent us in Congress he would be directly from the ranks of the people and in touch with and in sympathy with their needs. He is intelligent, energetic and enthusiastic— anxious to serve the people. He can and will learn how to work effectively for the cause of the people. He has the limitless possibilities and promises for good service that every young American possesses.

Dr. Fess is an able man. A finished scholar, an honest man and a platform speaker of acknowledged ability. He is a finished product. He has been in Congress four consecutive terms and he has become very active in political circles. He is mentioned almost every two years seriously and between election campaigns, time without number for Governor, or United States Senator. He has quite naturally become a part of the political life of the capital and is interested first in the success of Dr. Fess politically and of the party with which he is allied.

As a consequence he has lost, to the extent he has become involved in partisan political activities and personal success, either retention of his present position or advancement to some other place more prominent and more remunerative, that touch with and enthusiasm for the interests of the people of this district.

That's why we say Paul F. Dye is better qualified.

POETRY FOR TODAY

WORDS OF COURAGE

Let your own soul lead you onward,
From within obtain the aid
For your hand and heart and purpose,
Do you best. Be not dismayed.
Fight your battles. Win your triumph.
Like a soldier play the game
That is yours to rush in conflict,
Riches, science, health or fame,
If you pause for new endeavor,
Give an earnest thought to how
Is the best to meet the issue.
If beneath defeat you bow,
Bend, the burden will seem lighter;
Rest and it may ease the strain,
Try new tactics, be a fighter;
Play the game and try again.
Keep on trying, that's the battle;
Yield to stress, but not dismay,
When a door is closed before you
There will be some other way.

HARDING TIDE EBBS STEADILY COX'S IS RISING

Democratic Candidate Has Won Votes On Eastern Tour

His Adversary's Losses Largely Due to His Des Moines Speech —Johnson Helped.

BY MARK SULLIVAN
(Copyright 1920)

Washington, October 27.—The campaign has entered a new phase. That phase is a steady ebb in the Republican strength and a corresponding growth in the Democratic strength. The day when it began can be fixed with almost mathematical certainty.

Cox returned to Dayton from his long tour west of the Mississippi on Monday, October 4, and began his campaign in the east on the following Thursday. It was on that same day that Harding made his first appearance west of the Mississippi and delivered his Des Moines speech.

Cox's trans-Mississippi tour had been devoid of results. At that time it was possible to say, and it was said in this correspondence, that Cox's four weeks in the west had not changed the conditions in any state, and that he would not get more than one-fifth of the electoral votes in the eighteen states west of the Mississippi other than those classed as southern.

But the date I have mentioned marked the high tide of Republican strength. Whatever may be the exact result next Tuesday, the Republicans must know it will not be as favorable to them, either in terms of the popular vote or the electoral votes or in terms of the number of states carried as it would have been three weeks ago. From that week when Harding crossed the Mississippi westward and Cox crossed it eastward, not only has Cox made gains wherever he has appeared in the east, but also the echo of those gains has reflected itself in a betterment of his fortunes west of the Mississippi. I have expressed it in terms of Cox making gains, and that is accurate. But it should be additionally expressed in terms of the Republicans making losses.

Due to Des Moines Speech
The change has been due quite largely to Harding's Des Moines speech and to the distasteful inferences made by the public from the daily contradictions between Senator Johnson and ex-President Taft.

Of the substantial quality of the change there can be no doubt. I can name not fewer than four states and many smaller communities which, on October 7, the day of the Des Moines speech, were safely Republican, but which are now either probably Democratic or else in the doubtful list. One of these states is Utah.

In Utah there has been from the beginning a strong League sentiment. When Wilson first brought the Covenant back from Europe, a meeting was held in the Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City. William H. Taft was the principal speaker, and he gave the league an enthusiastic endorsement. At the close of the meeting a vote was taken and out of an audience of about 10,000 it was said—probably with exaggeration, but nevertheless with substantial accuracy—that 9999 voted "aye" and one voted "nay." It can be imagined how a community which had once believed in the league as strongly as this, and still believes in the league with modifications, was shocked by the newspaper headlines the day after the Des Moines speech.

In Utah Senator Smoot is having the hardest kind of a fight. He is the one Senator that the Republican party in the nation can least afford to lose. For that matter Senator Smoot's knowledge of the Government business is such that the country as a whole can ill afford to lose him. Senator Smoot's attitude on the league has been fairly acceptable to Utah and if he loses he will lose, not because of anything he has said or done but because of Harding's Des Moines speech.

Johnson Helped the Ebb
I have spoken as if it were Harding's Des Moines speech that started the ebb of the Republican tide. That is true. But that event alone would not have been so marked in its effect if it had not been followed by the speeches of Senator Johnson, in which Senator Johnson barks back to the Des Moines utterance and pins Senator Harding down to it. On this point there is testimony from a western city:

"A somewhat critical condition arose in the minds of large numbers of people when Senator Harding appeared to make an outspoken declaration against all leagues of nations at Des Moines. That was partially corrected by his Omaha speech and has been largely cured by the statement made by the thirty-one prominent Republicans."

The observer who expressed this judgment is in position to know what is true of this community. But speaking for the country generally the original impression created by the Des Moines speech is kept steadily alive by the speeches of Senator Johnson, who specially refers to the statements of the "thirty-one Republicans and flouts them."

There are several other communities in the west where the revulsion from Harding, due to the suspicion that his position and Senator Johnson's are identical, is not necessarily state wide, but might yet be sufficiently strong to effect states heretofore considered safely Republican.

What the degree of this revulsion we shall never know, because there is no record of how great the Republican victory would have been had the election occurred the day preceding the Des Moines speech. The revulsion, of course, is confined to persons who are in some degree pro-league. Here, again, we have uncertainty, for there is no means of knowing what the divisions among the voters is between anti-league and pro-league.

May Lose Full Advantage

It is the misfortune of Cox and the fault of the Democratic organization that they will probably not be able to get the full advantage of this revulsion. They have not the mechanism to bring to the polls every possible voter who may have been unsettled by the present phase of the League issue. A voter who at one stage of the campaign has made up his mind to vote for one candidate only rarely woe wholeheartedly over to the point of voting for the opposite candidate. More usually he merely becomes unsettled and concludes not to vote at all, to go fishing or to play golf. It is these voters that the Democrats might get to the polls if they had the machinery.

I think it may be said safely that even under normal conditions, omitting this turn of the tide, there is an average of say, five Democratic voters and five Republican voters in every election precinct who will vote or not vote, according to whether or not there is an active party worker on the ground to see them on election day and actually take them to the polls. This margin of voters includes those who are sick, those who are indifferent, those who are a little disgruntled, those who want to take advantage of a holiday. An effective worker who will undertake to see them at an hour convenient to them and provide an automobile to take them to the polls will get just that many additional votes for his party, and the aggregate of five votes in each election precinct would make from ten to twenty-five thousand votes in the state, and would change the result in many states.

For the Republicans the individual precinct worker necessary to do this will be on hand and have his automobile. For the Democrats in most states, this worker will not exist.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Interest in Tuesday night's meeting of the Browning Club centered in the reports from the recent Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Julia H. Dahl, Browning President, and Federation delegate, made a wonderfully well prepared and concise report. She had attended all the sessions and taken from each the salient features, which gave to club women a very enjoyable and satisfactory general prospectus. Mrs. Sharp, Federation President, was presented as a delightful presiding officer.

The social features of the Federation, opening with an officers luncheon in the rotunda of the Capitol, a pioneer luncheon, an educational luncheon, musical and press luncheons at the Desher Hotel were not only pleasurable, but the after conferences brought to gether delegates for heart to heart talks. The big banquet at the Elks' club house Thursday night was a brilliant closing event.

Miss Minnie Light entertainingly reported the musical features and sessions. Mrs. Frank Seiberling, of Akron President of the National Federation of Women's Clubs made the chief address, her subject, "Making America a Musical Nation."

Miss Light made special mention of the musical luncheon, the chapel concert given by representatives of music clubs belonging to the Federation, and the gratifying part in these taken by the Cecilians representatives on the programs. Miss Edith Gardner and Mrs. Jean Todd Creamer.

Following the Federation resume the Art Department, Miss Gardner chairman, took charge of the meeting.

Mrs. Laura Gregg presented an excellent paper, its research material well suited on "Brabant Architecture." The paper called special attention to one of the old churches of Brussels, Belgium, St. Gubule, and the Hotel de Ville, Brussel's old town hall.

Mrs. Bessie Pearce Briggs was elected to the associate membership of the club.

Mrs. Frank C. Parrett entertained the Tuesday Bridge club at a beautifully appointed luncheon, its viands particularly delicious.

An exquisite arrangement of callendulas formed the center decoration of the table, the predominating tint of yellow also featured in clever Halloween place cards.

With Mesdames Lillie G. Davis and Lulu H. Sheets hostesses at the Federated Club rooms Tuesday afternoon the Cecilians presented a Reginald De Koven program. A memorial to this American composer, who died last January. Most of his music is light opera, tuneful and catchy and generally well received.

The program was delightful and the musical numbers admirably given, both pianists and singers bringing out the composer's special style effectively.

The program was presented as follows:

Reginald De Koven
.....Mrs. Netta H. Ballard
The Canterbury Pilgrims
.....Mrs. Nina M. Craig
Rip Van Winkle
.....Miss Minnie M. Light
Piano—The Wood Nymphs
.....Miss Mabel Briggs
Piano—Valse Espagnole
.....Mrs. Elva H. Kelley
Song—Norman Cradle Song
.....Mrs. Winnie W. Shoop
Piano—Coquette
.....Mrs. Myrtle C. Klever
Vocal Duet—Recessional
.....Mrs. Mary G. Burget, Mrs. Amy Hudson.
Mrs. Shoop accompanist.

After the program Miss Light and Miss Gardner, the Cecilian delegates at the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs gave very interesting reports of the Ohio Federation program.

Miss Gardner represented the Cecilians in the Federation Musical Conference and presented a spicy paper on "Overcoming Handicaps," which aroused much favorable comment. In previous discussion it was brought out that the handicap of the Cecilians were those of other clubs and that they all suffered from the same kind of trials. Miss Gardner gave much encouragement in showing how the Cecilians had disposed of these handicaps and risen to its present successful attainment both in the size of the club and its musical accomplishments.

The reporting delegates said that the Cecilians had every reason to be proud of their musical representative. Mrs. Jean Todd Creamer, of Jeffersonville, who opened the Chapel concert program with a well received piano number.

While American women have come to new responsibilities and new duties as full-fledged citizens, the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs must always remain non-partisan as an organization if it is to accomplish all that it hopes to accomplish and to continue on the road of progress it has been traveling the past twenty-five years. That is the view of the state president, Mrs. William H. Sharp, Columbus, who declares in a message to Ohio's $6,450 federated clubwomen that "women sought the franchise to promote civic righteousness." "We must not fail," Mrs. Sharp says. "To exercise this right of franchise becomes a solemn obligation, a sacred duty which we owe to our country. But the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs must never become partisan in politics. Adopting the plan suggested by Mrs. Anna J. H. Pennybacker, Austin, Texas, chairman of the department of citizenship for the General Federation of Women's Clubs, we hope to make this our motto: "Every club a training camp for citizenship."

Henceforth it shall be the aim of Ohio clubwomen to study in the same manner our national platforms as they have studied their literary programs. It will be their constant aim to study in wise, non-partisan fashion, not only national political questions, but state and local issues as well. It will be their duty to register in order to vote. "This is the hour in which the womanhood of America is on trial," Mrs. Sharp asserts. "That is why every club woman should vote November 2. It is our duty not only this year, but every year."

Mrs. Charles Wynn gave a Halloween party Tuesday evening in honor of her daughter Miss Verda Hamilton who left for her home in Chicago, Wednesday morning. The rooms were decorated in orange and black, with chrysanthemums and dahlias decorating the table.

Dancing and Victrola music were enjoyed after which a delightful luncheon was served.

Those present were Mr. Valentine Hoppes, sons Ieland and Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Eber Hodge and children, Mrs. Earl Horney, Dr. Beem and mother, Mrs. Henry Ward and children Anna May and Dale.

The Sunday School class of Mrs. Frank Carr was delightfully entertained with a masquerade and weiner roast, Tuesday evening at her home on Circleville pike.

SELZNICK NEWS

ENDS HER LIFE TRIED 8 TIMES

After trying repeatedly to end her life during the past few months, Mrs. Grace Fisher, aged 26, finally succeeded at the home of her sister, Mrs. Kemple, in Waynesville.

Mrs. Fisher was a resident of Wilmington and known in this city. Domestic troubles led to fits of despondency and caused the woman's death. She used carbolic acid.

"RUBE" GOT GREATER PART OF RECEIPTS

According to information reaching the local baseball club headquarters, it cost Sabina baseball club just about $200 to hold the Washington Athletics to a tie score last Sunday afternoon.

Of the $200, it is reliably reported that the famous "Rube" Benton, pitcher of the New York Giants, received $150 for his efforts. Of course the "Rube" was expected to win his game but he didn't, therefore remorse.

A local player is said to have heard the Sabina management wail, "The largest crowd of the season and there goes the greater part of it back to Cincinnati."

The Sabina club is not blaming Benton. Several of the hits made off his delivery would have been easy outs for any other team except Sabina. In one inning he retired the Athletics on nine straight strikes.

GAS TROUBLES IN WILMINGTON

Wilmington, with artificial gas is still having her troubles, and at numerous times recently has the plant closed down and users of gas have been compelled to look elsewhere for fuel and light.

The latest trouble came Sunday and Monday, and the reason for the shut-down this time is said to be delayed shipment of coal.

Former General Manager of the Washington Gas & Electric Company G. M. Clapp, is manager of the Wilmington plant.

HARTMAN THEATER COLUMBUS

"Made to Love" will come to the Hartman Theater, Columbus, Ohio, for three days commencing Monday November 1, and with a special priced matinee on Wednesday.

Its music is by Percy Wenrich whose gay and whistleable scores for his many different successes made his name a welcome one to the theatergoers on any program.

The reputedly saucy story and lyrics are by Raymond W. Peck, who has the famous Elsie Janis whirlwind production, "The Vanderbilt Cup" to his credit.

As might be expected in the choice of an attraction to equal the merits as turned out by these two distinguished writers, the principles have been chosen for the excellence of their voices as well as their reputation as comedy players. Among them are Vinton Freedley, Dolly Connolly, Lillian Ring, Robert Woolsey and Tom Lewis.

Arias that are bound to find their way to the waxen disc and the player roll are "The Rocking Chair Fleet," "Love's Romantic Sea," "We Were Made to Love," "You Can Trust Me" and many others just as capable of lingering in the memory of those that hear them.

SWINE DISEASE IN ROSS COUNTY

There is considerable hog cholera in Ross county, according to a report from the Ross County Farm Bureau, Monday morning.

The farmers of the county, realizing the importance of calling in a veterinarian at once, have the "vets" on the hop, skip and jump. The result is that conditions at the present time show an improvement over those of a week ago. The first rule of "call a veterinarian" is viewed by farmers not as propaganda, but as good common sense. The results prove it.

Although there is said to be quite a lot of cholera in Ross county, it is said to be so distributed that it can hardly be called epidemic, and to prevent such a condition is the effort of every farmer, every member of the bureau and the granges.—Chillicothe News.

The man who listens to another man's wife's domestic troubles is usually the cause of the greatest infelicity.

HARDING DENIES AGENT IN RUSSIA

(By Associated Press)

Washington, October 26. B. & O. LAYING HEAVY PLANKING ON THE NORTH STREET CROSSING

All Brick Work Has Been Removed For Improvement.

No Action Yet Taken Towards Improvement of
Other Crossings.

First action towards street crossing improvement in this city has been taken by the Baltimore and Ohio R. R. with the laying of a heavy plank crossing on North North street.

All brick and concrete work has been torn up and the heavy plank is being laid. The sidewalk sections of the crossing have not been molested.

The first row of planks has been completed and they present a smooth and even appearance for the passage of traffic. The work was held up by rain Wednesday but indications were that the crossing will be completed within a short time.

It is the opinion among railroad men that the plank crossing for such a railroad system as the Baltimore and Ohio is rated as the best. It is said that the long freights, with their cars averaging in weight when filled anywhere from 55 to 60 tons, cause the brick and concrete to disintegrate and fall apart.

An instance of this has been cited on West Court street where the Pennsylvania and B. & O. tracks cross at the same point. The brick crossing of the Pennsylvania over which cars averaging from 45 to 50 tons are hauled is in splendid condition, while only a few feet away, the B. & O. crossing, laid at the same time, has loosened until it is rough.

No action has been taken by the B. & O. to improve the Fayette and Main streets crossings other than the work last summer, which has not been approved by the city officials.

TEMPLE LODGE HOLDS ANNUAL HOME-COMING

Temple Lodge, I. O. O. F., held its Annual Homecoming Tuesday evening in the lodge rooms with close to 150 members and visitors present.

Distinction was added to the Homecoming by the presence of Past Grand Master H. D. Chaffin, of Columbus, a former member of the local lodge.

In a social hour, including the regular lodge meeting until nine o'clock, various members of the Order were called on to speak and made happy response. Among these was Past Grand Master H. D. Chaffin, who responded graciously.

Following the regular session the way was led to the banquet hall where under the capable direction of Captain Vincent the supper was served.

One of the features of the evening was the "roll call" of the membership to which a high number answered.

LUCKY DECISION FOR HIM HE SAYS

Was Badly Run Down and Losing Weight Rapidly When He Determined To Try Tanlac

"In the past four weeks I have not only been restored to complete health but I have also gained twelve pounds in weight," said John F. Lawrence, a prosperous farmer living on R. F. D. 8, Toledo, Ohio.

"During the past two years I have been in such a weak, rundown condition that I felt good-for-nothing all the time. My appetite was poor, nothing tasted good to me and I couldn't digest what I did eat. After eating I always suffered from nausea and I felt bilious most of the time. I was nervous and restless, could never sleep well and was so weak that I became exhausted if I tried to get around and do a little work. Nothing I took did me a particle of good and I worried over my condition so I was beginning to lose weight rapidly.

"Finally, I decided to try Tanlac as so many people right here in Toledo had been taking it with fine results. Well that was a lucky decision on my part for right away I began to feel better, work better and to pick up in weight and strength. So far, I have taken three bottles and, as I said I have gained twelve pounds and am stronger than I have been in many years. I eat like a hungry wolf and never suffer from indigestion at all. My nerves are as strong as steel and I sleep sound all night long just like I used to years ago. I feel brimful of life and energy and I gladly tell others that Tanlac did it all."

Tanlac is sold in Washington by C. & Haver, in Lowell by Mason's Drug Store, in Jeffersonville by J. B. Davis, in Octa by I. W. Murphy and in Millidgeville, E. L. Ford Sons, Lee Ortman, Selden. — Adv.

GOITRE

Completely Removed for Springfield Girl by External Remedy.

Note: It would be illegal to publish these statements if they were not true.

Mrs. Frank Beard, 1610 Karr St. Springfield, Ohio, says in her home paper, the Springfield Daily News: "Sorbol Quadruple completely removed a goitre of five years' standing for my daughter six years ago, and it has never bothered her since. She was in a terrible condition. Her nervous system was broken down. We had to take her from school. It took less than one bottle to reduce her neck 1 1/2 inches and restore her to good health. I am glad to tell any one our experience by letter or phone."

Sorbol Quadruple comes in small bottles containing enough for most cases. It will not stain or irritate. Does not interfere with daily work. Leaves the parts in a healthful normal condition. Requires ten minutes daily.

SABINA AND TIGERS SEEK ANOTHER GAME

There is a possibility, all depending on the weather, that another ball game may be played at Sunnyside park Sunday afternoon. Both Sabina and the Jeffersonville Tigers are asking for a game.

It has not been determined at club headquarters Tuesday which offer would be taken up, but arrangements will probably be made, it was stated, for the concluding contest.

If another game is played, it is said the Athletics will present the same lineup with which they were able to hold the mighty "Rube" Benton to a tie at Sabina Sunday afternoon.

MOVIES TAKEN AT BAINBRIDGE

Chief Deputy Game Protector James Stuber, accompanied by assistants and moving picture operators of Columbus, spent Friday in the vicinity of Bainbridge, where pictures were taken to be used in the department's campaign for better hunting and fishing.

Mr. Stuber, while in this city, stated that fishermen and hunters all over the state declare that fish and game are more plentiful this year than for the past ten years.—Scioto Gazette.
